WIND STORM

Greatest Ever Known in This Section Plays Havoc With Property.

Thousands of dollars worth of property was destroyed last week as the result of the fierce wind storm that prevailed here for about three hours Tuesday evening, from 6 to 9 o'clock. Roofs were lifted from dwellings and business houses, signs were scattered in all directions, trees were uprooted and fences twisted and blown down. It is said to have been the strongest wind that ever prevailed in this section of the country, and the oldest residents declare it to be a fact.

For about two hours the main thoroughfares of Richmond were completely deserted as the earth had swallowed them up, everyone being afraid to venture out for fear of getting hit with flying tree limbs, or torn signs. Reports from over the county show that the heaviest damage ever known to have been wrought from wind storms came with a rush. On the farm of Mr. George Phelps, on the Lexington pike, a barn was blown down and other damage done. At Berea, Kingston, College Hill, Red House, Kirksville and other sections, chimneys were blown down, fences torn away and roofs blown from the houses by the great force of the wind. The Kincaid Brick & Tile Co., at Waco, lost a large smoke stack, which was terribly torn and twisted. The Glyndon hotel building, the Cullen building, the Normal School, the home of Mr. Green Turley on the Big Hill pike, the residence of W. L. Crutcher, on the Barnes Hill road, and the home of Wm. Griggs, were all visited by the destructive wind and great pieces of roofing and chimneys were torn away. No loss of life has been reported, and only one or two instances where stock suffered, has been reported so far by the Climax correspondents throughout the county.

Notice-Com.

All those who failed to come to Richmond April 3rd, county court day, on account of the disagreeable weather and desire the Clay County, Mo., White Seed Corn, as advertised in the Climax and Kansas City Journal, can still procure same from me free as advertised. Hear Him.

William Jennings Bryan, who is billed to lecture here on the afternoon of the 26th, will very likely draw one of the largest crowds ever assembled at the Normal school on a similar occasion, and hundreds of Madison county people are expected to hear him. If the auditorium proves too small the campus will be used. President Crabbe has succeeded in having three of the greatest men in the country, in the public eye, here for the benefit of the school, principally, which includes the visit of Mr. Bryan, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, and Congressman Richard Harrison, the war hero, have been here and have pleased large audiences. Mr. Bryan is still a great man in the public eye and his famous address, "The Prince of Peace," bids fair to afford a rare afternoon for those who are fortunate enough to hear him on the 26th.

Meet Here.

The local organization of the Modern Brotherhood of America are anxious for the Eighth Congressional District convention to meet in this city in July, and with the influence of State Manager Newson, of this city, they have sent a petition to Grand President T. B. Hanley, of Des Moines, Iowa, to designate this city as the place for the meeting. This appointment is in the power of the Grand President. The main object of the district meeting is to select delegates to the National Convention, which meets in Denver in August. The local brotherhood is flourishing and is perhaps the largest in the district.

April and March.

The large furniture sign of March & Co., the Lexington dealers, could not withstand the April wind and was torn from its moorings on the court house square.

Helm Honored.

Congressman Harvey Helm, representing the Eighth Congressional District, was highly honored by the Democratic caucus of the new house which met in Washington last week. He was made Chairman of the Committee on Expenditures of the War Department, and was also placed on the Insular Affairs and Census committees. Ben Johnson was the only other Kentucky congressman to get a committee chairmanship, he being placed at the head of the District of Columbia committee. This prominent assignment puts Congressman Helm at the very forefront in the new Democratic Congress and is regarded as a great honor, especially in view of the fact that he is now only serving his third term. Mr. Helm has been flooded with congratulatory messages from all over the district and state since the announcement of his selection as a committee chairman was made public.

Eclipse.

The people of Richmond and Madison county will have the rare chance to witness a total eclipse of the sun during this month, the phenomena coming on the 28th, and will be visible from three to six o'clock in the afternoon. The southern, southeastern and southwestern states will come in for a direct view, but the northern section of this country will be excluded. Local astronomers are preparing for a treat while Old Sol is thus shaded. The eclipse will also be visible to Mexico, Central America, the western portion of the West Indies, the eastern half of Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific ocean, the path of totality extending from Auckland, Australia, across the Pacific ocean almost to Central America. An annular eclipse of the sun will occur on October 23, which will be invisible to the United States, but visible to Asia, Philippine Islands, Australia, the northern part of New Zealand and the Pacific ocean.

Loud Smash.

Night Foreman Bailey received a terrible scare last Tuesday evening at the L. & A. shops during the terrific wind storm and his assistants were also given a shaking up, when a portion of the building in which they were working was lifted by the wind and blown to pieces. The men thought the entire building was doomed, and were preparing to desert their posts of duty, when Foreman Bailey, who had recovered from his sudden fright, prevailed on them to remain. The damage amounted to about $100.
